

Gurka Family History Records

These records are the result of research conducted at Štátny archív v Levoči (the Slovakian National Archives at Levoča) by its staff on our behalf. Štátny archív v Levoči is the branch of the Slovakian Archives in charge of records for the Spís region of Slovakia. The research was conducted in February and March of 2007. Štátny archív v Levoči was successful in tracing the Gurka lineage back to the late 1700's, but they were not able to trace the lineage of Katarina Macsus, nor that of Anna Zajacz, as explained in their letter.

The results consist of the cover letter, three pedigree charts, and twenty copies of church parish records—printouts from microfilm covering 15 separate records, some of which are two-page. On the first pedigree chart I have made one correction. Štátny archív v Levoči had given the religion of Anna Zajacz as Evangelical (Lutheran). Anna Zajacz's name appears in two records: 1.) Record #10, the record of her marriage to Michal Gurka; and Record #6, the baptism record of their son Martin. In the marriage record it appears that both Michal and Anna are "RC" (Roman Catholic) and both "pl" (plebian; i.e., of the lower class). And in the baptism record there does not appear to be any particular indication of either Anna's or Michal's religion. So I believe that in this case "Evangelical" is a mistake, and I have therefore crossed it out and written "Catholic" above. The letter, the pedigree charts and the records are presented here in the order in which Štátny archív v Levoči packaged the pages. They are not in chronological order. Records 1 through 10 are from the combined baptismal/marriage register of the R.C. parish of Smizany, with its affiliated church in Iliasovce. The marriage records start on page number 318 in this volume. The first records in the register date from 1744, and no earlier parish records exist. Records 11 through 13, and record 15, are from the combined baptism/marriage/burial register of the R.C. parish of Hrabušice, with its affiliated church in Betlanovce. And record 14 is from the marriage register of the Evangelical a. c. at Vel'ká. The official name of the Lutheran church in Slovakia is "Evanjelicka cirkev augsburskeho vyznania na Slovensku," the "Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession in Slovakia."

Following the records as received from Štátny archív v Levoči are my transcriptions and translations.

Dear Mr. Terrill,

In reply to your letter we wish to inform you that according to the marriage register of the Evangelical a. c. at Veľká, no.:952, Ján Gurka, Roman Catholic, a carter, son of Martin Gurka and Katarína Macsus, from Betlanovce, age: 27, got married 22-year-old Evangelical a. c. Zuzana Tomo, daughter of Ján Tomo and Mária Michalko, from Štrba. According to the baptismal register of the Roman Catholic parish at Hrabušice, affiliated church Betlanovce, no.: 132, Ján Gurka was born on 25 May 1869. His death and his children's births cannot be found in our institution because registers from Veľká after 1896 are kept by the Registry Office at Poprad.

Results of our research pertaining to Ján Gurka found in the registers of the Roman Catholic parish in Smižany with its affiliated church in Iliašovce, and Hrabušice with its affiliated church in Betlanovce are given in the chart that you can find enclosed and supported by copies of the original records. We wish to add that further information about Jakub Gurka's ancestors cannot be found because his parents were not born in 1744 – 1757, and records from before 1744 are not preserved. Because of this lack, we have to end searching in Marianik's line, as well. According to her age (26) given in the marriage record, Anna Zajacz should have been born in Iliašovce in about 1808 but, unfortunately, the baptismal register of Iliašovce does not confirm it. According to her age (23) given in the marriage record, Katarína Macsus should have been born in about 1843 in Betlanovce but as in the previous case, it is not proved by the baptismal register of Betlanovce. As in both cases we do not have the birth records - the starting point of each searching – we are obliged to stop searching.

Dear Mr. Terrill, we hope that we have succeeded to clarify your family history. In case you are interested in some more information, we will be pleased to provide it to you, if our sources make it possible. In that case, do not forget, please to inform us again about your financial limit.

Transcriptions and translations research results from Štátny archív v Levoči

by C. Terrill, April 2007

I've underlined parts that I've transcribed uncertainly. And parts within brackets ({}) are untranscribed. Parts added in parentheses usually come from somewhere up above in the records (e.g., the year), or they may not have been there at all and I'm taking the Slovakian Archives' word for it (from the pedigree charts that they provided). In my translations I've given what I think are the Slovakian names. This little mark (ě) appears to be used on the end of an abbreviation of a word to indicate "you know the rest."

Comments: The occupation of “carter” for Jan Gurka is from information I received in a letter from Štátny archív v Levoči. Mihály Zmok, one of the witnesses, is undoubtedly Meklos Zmok who was living at the same place (15 Korrok Str., Johnstown, Pa.) as was Janos Gurka in Dec. 1910 when Janos's daughter Susanna came to America. All ten couples on this page of the record book, spanning a period of 16 months, were married by Béla Strauch, Lutheran minister, so it appears to be a Lutheran parish record book. Six couples were Lutheran, the other four mixed Lutheran/Catholic. Of these other four, for three the groom was Catholic, and for the other the bride was Catholic. Two of these mixed marriages (both groom-Catholic) were prior to the Jan Gurka / Zuzanna Tomo marriage (one of them occurred a year earlier, in Feb. 1895).

The ECTACO free English-Hungarian-English on-line dictionary is available at <http://online.ectaco.co.uk>. A better one, though, is the SZTAKI dictionary, at http://dict.sztaki.hu/dict_search.php. This dictionary allows you to get a list of words spelled similarly to the one you originally specified. I used it forwards and backwards (from Hungarian to English and vice-versa) repeatedly to zero in on various word meanings. {Tip: Click on “English->Hungarian” or “Hungarian->English” to change direction.} Difficulty in reading the original record (and thus not knowing how to correctly spell the words) made it necessary to do this. So the translation involved guesswork, and it helped to know (from Latin marriage records) approximately what to expect. Most of the words in the transcription were derived in this interactive manner, starting from an initial guess. Here are some words and their translations which were close enough in spelling to help:

fiú = son

lány = daughter

hirdetve = billed

felmentés = dispensation

anyakönyv = parish register

jegyzetek = notes

alapján = by

tanúsítvány = certificate

kell = to require, to need

Notes: On this same page there are 17 grooms, nine of whom are soldiers (Latin “miles”). Of these nine, six (5 of them “gregarius miles”, and one a “kiserv. miles” (?)) were with Legion Schmerling #67, one (a “corporalis miles” of age 26) was with Legion Marezuhebz #10, one (a gregarius miles) was with Cohortis Venatorum (the chase cohort, a cohort being the 10th part of a legion), and for the last (an “emeritus miles” of age 32, a veteran, a soldier who has served his time) the record does not mention the name of a legion or cohort. Considering the preponderance of “gregarius miles” it would appear that Cassell’s Latin Dictionary’s translation of “gregarius” as a private soldier refers to the rank of private. “Corporalis” probably refers to the rank of corporal. The privates’ ages were 26, 24, 29, 26, 27 and 25. So Martin Gurka was a private in Legion Schmerling #67. The American Heritage Dictionary (on-line) defines “legion” as 1. The major unit of the Roman army consisting of 3000 to 6000 infantry troops and 100 to 200 cavalry troops, and 2. A large military unit trained for combat; an army.
